The diagram shows a vertical stack of layers. At the top is a thin red line. Below it is a thick brown horizontal band. This is followed by a white space, then a thin green horizontal line. Below that is a white space containing the text 'сторона 1'. This is followed by another thin green horizontal line, a white space containing the text 'сторона 2', another thin green horizontal line, a white space containing the text 'сторона 3', and finally a white space containing the text 'место склейки'. The bottom of the diagram is a red line that tapers inward from the sides, meeting a horizontal red line at the very bottom.
